

Prayer for Our Children

Jeremy Allen Steenson is a disciple taught of the Lord; great is his peace and undisturbed composure. No weapon formed against him shall prosper (Isa 54:13 & 17), but what he lays his hand to shall prosper because he walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the way of the sinner, nor sits at the seat of the scornful, therefore Jeremy is blessed of God. His delight is in the law of the Lord; and in His law he meditates both day and night. Jeremy is like a tree planted by the rivers of water and he shall bring forth his fruit in season. (Prov. 1-3)

Jeremy obeys his parents, for this is right. He honors his father and mother because that is the first commandment with promise; that it may be well with him and he shall live long on the earth. (Eph. 6:1-3)

This book of the law shall not depart out of Jeremy's mouth; but he shall meditate therein both day and night, that he may do according to all that is written therein, for then he shall make his way prosperous and then he shall have good success. (Josh. 1:8) For God so loved Jeremy that He gave Jesus, that if Jeremy would believe in Him he would not perish but would have everlasting life. For God didn't send Jesus into the world to condemn Jeremy, but that through Jesus Jeremy might be saved. (John 3:16 & 17)

Jeremy is strong in the Lord and the power of His might. He has on the whole armor of God that he may be able to stand against the devil. For he wrestles not against flesh and blood but against principalities and powers and rulers of the darkness of this world, and against spiritual wickedness in high places. Therefore Jeremy takes on the whole armor of God that he may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, he stands with his loins girt about with truth. Jeremy has on the breastplate of righteousness, his feet are shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace and above all he has the shield of faith, wherewith he shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. He has on the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. (Eph. 6:10-17)

God searches Jeremy's heart and He knows his thoughts to see if there be any wicked way in him, and He leads Jeremy in the way everlasting. (Psalm 139:23 & 24) He keeps Jeremy back from presumptuous sins and doesn't let them have dominion over him. The words of Jeremy's mouth, and the meditation of his heart, are acceptable in God's sight, because He is Jeremy's Lord, his strength, and his redeemer. (Psalm 19:13 & 14)

Jeremy is crucified with Christ: nevertheless he lives; yet not Jeremy, but Christ liveth in him: and the life which he now lives in the flesh he lives by the faith of the Son of God, who loved him, and gave himself for Jeremy. (Gal. 2:20)

Jeremy Allen Steenson is a mighty man of God — in the making!!

Rom. 4:17 "God...callesh those things that be not as though they were."

Isa. 55:11 "So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it."
